Attacks on Jews.

A deplorable feature of the news from the interior is that anti-Jewish uprisings have occurred in many places, especially in South Russia, where the populace vented its hatred of the Jews by sacking their stores and clubbing the members of the race, in some cases resorting to the torch. The attacks on the crowd are reported to be in most cases the work of Cossacks who many times are apparently let loose upon the people without direction or authority.

STRONG MINE HAS RICHEST AND BIGGEST STRIKE OF YEAR

Picked Samples Are Fabulously Rich, Running Into the Hundreds of Thousands of Dollars---Eight Feet of the Rock Will Probably Yield From $100 to $140 to the Ton.

Special to The Gazette.

CRIPPLE CREEK, Nov. 1.—Many bodies of rich ore have been found in the Cripple Creek district during the year, but exceeding them all in dimensions and quality is that made during the week in the Strong mine on Battle mountain, of which mine the Strong Gold Mining company, with headquarters at Colorado Springs, is the owner.

There stands revealed today an ore shoot eight feet wide. The strike was made Monday and a crosscut was driven 50 feet northeast of the shaft at a depth of 1,000 feet.

A round of shots fired into the wall exposed a metallic condition that surprised Sam McDonald, superintendent. Staring him in the face was a jagged and broken surface literally alive with white and yellow colorings of calaverite and native gold all shining under the glare of the candle like the proverbial tin can in the sunlight. There were flakes of absolute purity and seams of gold, which, if separated from the quartz would bring the settlement to something in excess of $600,000 to the ton. THE RESULT OF A BROKEN LAW.

PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT'S recent speeches throughout the South have been characterized by even more than his usual vigor of expression. They have been full of forcible epigrams worthy of permanent place in the nation's literature. By virtue of the tact, amounting in his case almost to genius, with which he avoids giving unnecessary offense to any section of the nation the President's speeches bear on local and sectional issues only in that they are based upon great fundamental truths applicable to conditions everywhere.

One notable illustration is the speech which he delivered at Tuskegee Institute. In the course of this speech he declared:

"Every time a law is broken every individual in the community has the moral tone of his life lowered."

These words should be engraved on the memory and in the conscience of the American people. The lawbreaker not alone degrades himself but he also injures every individual in the community where he resides.

The whole country has been shocked by the recent exposures of graft and corruption in municipalities and public corporations. But the conditions thus revealed have been brought about by the gradual lowering of the moral tone of individuals and communities.

Since it is true, as the President declares, that every time a law is broken every individual in the community has the moral tone of his life lowered, what is to be thought of a community that, through carelessness or indifference, permits its laws to be broken with impunity? It was the gradual lowering of moral tone that made Philadelphia the victim of thieves and grafters. It was the gradual lowering of moral tone that for years kept New York in the grasp of Tammany. In a similar way it is a gradual lowering of moral tone that is resulting in the corruption of thousands of smaller communities.

It is a great deal easier to comment on moral conditions in New York and Philadelphia than in Colorado Springs. But if moral tone is lowered by a single violation of law, what is to be said regarding the effect in the case reported in yesterday morning's Gazette, where it is charged that a law has been broken nine times in four months by one individual?

In the light in which President Roosevelt puts lawbreaking, the matter becomes one of direct, personal and vital importance to every individual in the community; it is not sentiment, it is not prejudice, it is self-protection. When it is realized that the breaking of a law lowers the moral tone of each individual in the community it becomes apparent that every home in the city is menaced. Viewed in this light every man worthy of the name will see that the fight for law enforcement can not be dropped.

The President in his speech at Tuskegee has given to the people of Colorado Springs the very message that they need. It is well worthy of reiteration.

STATUES AND MONUMENTS.

THE unveiling of the J. Sterling Morton monument at Nebraska City last Saturday was the final act in a well-meant effort to give a fitting tribute of respect to one who fully deserved it. If Mr. Morton's public services had been limited to the founding of "Arbor Day" and the encouragement which he gave to tree-planting, for that alone he would have been entitled to gratitude.

But it is a serious question whether any real and lasting honor is paid to the memory of a man merely by erecting his statue in his native town. Such monuments are frequently far from artistic and, indeed, the reverse of ornamental. The position in which the statue is placed is often wholly incongruous with the nature of the man himself. The principles for which he contended are in no way furthered except possibly to a very slight extent through publicity given them by means of inscriptions on the monument. There are always ways by which any money available for memorial purposes can be put to some use where it will be a perpetual reminder of the spirit as well as the name of the one thus honored. A striking illustration of two methods of showing honor to the dead was afforded in a recent newspaper item. Certain workmen wishing to show their respect for a deceased brother raised $50 for a wreath of flowers to be sent to his funeral. At the suggestion of one of their number the sum was finally divided and two dollars paid for a bouquet of flowers while the remaining $48 were contributed to the support of his dependent orphan.

There are, however, certain monuments which are more in the nature of historic landmarks than personal tributes to individuals. Such a monument is that of Lieutenant Pike in this city. While honoring his memory its still greater purpose is to commemorate the historic expedition which he led. It is more like the monument on a battlefield than a statue to the vain glory of an individual.

The spots most noted in the history of America ought to be thus marked. The places where great events have occurred, should be designated by suitable tablets or monuments. Such landmarks of national progress and development serve a most useful purpose in stimulating patriotism, instilling a love for history and disseminating a knowledge of the causes and events which have made the country great.

JAPAN'S MEDICAL VICTORY.

NOT less phenomenal than Japan's unprecedented succession of victories on land and sea during the war with Russia were her victories in the hospitals and against disease in the field.

Many lessons have been taught by the war, but none more important than those relative to sanitation and surgery.

Statistics show that in the great wars of history previous to this last conflict, four men perished from disease to every one from wounds received in battle. In the Japanese army slightly over seven per cent were killed in battle, about one and a half per cent died from wounds and only two per cent died from disease.

Surgeon General Suzuki, of the Japanese navy, declares that the remarkable results which were achieved were the result not of new methods, but only of putting into [illegible] knowledge which was already at the disposal of the world. The success in the treatment of the wounded, which has never before been equaled, he attributes to the use of the aseptic instead of the antiseptic method. In other words, instead of fighting disease germs after they had entered the body, the Japanese surgeons even during the excitement of an engagement took every pains to see that the germs did not enter. This method, so far as the Japanese navy was concerned, was an innovation.

Prevention, rather than cure, was emphasized in both the army and navy. The most effective and elaborate system of sanitation was put into execution and preventable disease practically stamped out. For ten years, ever since the war with China, Japanese experts have been studying the problems presented by the necessity of preserving the lives and health of men on ship and in the field and the result shows how practical the result of this study has been. As Dr. Suzuki himself says: "To know is one thing, and to act out, live out, in the life of every day is quite another thing."

The Japanese seem to have learned both and in so doing have set a most valuable example to other nations, including the United States.

An English publication is authority for the statement that the up-to-date burglar wears gloves when he is making his professional calls. This it seems is not in flattering imitation of the "Amateur Cracksman," the gentlemanly-attired Raffles, but rather out of deference to Sherlock Holmes who established the practice on the part of detectives of microscopical examination of window ledges and the identification of criminals by their finger-prints.

The Boulder County Miner apologizes for a too frequent repetition of the word "big" in its headlines by saying that it is the best word of its size to express present conditions. That is the great difficulty experienced by everyone who has anything to do with describing conditions in Colorado. The truth necessarily seems like exaggeration and there are not superlatives enough in the language to avoid repetition in their use.

A special committee of the Railway association reports that 346,000,000 pounds of explosives are manufactured annually in the United States and that nearly all of this amount is transported by the railroads. Judging from the attitude of certain statesmen toward any question affecting the railroads they are fully aware that it is loaded.

The Cumberland Presbyterian ladies of Bobin, Kentucky, have adopted a novel plan of raising money for missionary purposes by pledging that they will give to missions all eggs laid by their hens on Sunday. We trust that no question of Sabbath desecration and tainted money will interfere with the success of this experiment.

REOPENING OLD SORES.

It is with regret that the people learn that the damage cases growing out of the labor troubles and deportations of 1903 are to be fought out. The verdict in the case tried, Becker vs. Hanchett, was purely nominal, indicating that the jury were impressed with the same idea, that the occasion of the troubles was one in which both sides in the excitement committed wrongs and were to blame. The troubles are past and every mark of the struggle is healed and almost forgotten. The continuation of these cases in court can have only one result, the rekindling of animosities that have caused both sides to the controversy much distress and out of the legal battle comes no convincing arguments or results. We believe the attorneys are responsible for the continuation of a controversy of which the right-thinking principals on each side are equally tired, and from which no good can come.—Idaho Springs Mining Gazette.

FIGHT AGAINST GANG STIRS PHILADELPHIA

Whole City Aroused to Action to Oust Corrupt Graft Machine. Personality of Mayor Weaver, an "Organization" Man who Unexpectedly Broke with the Gang and Led Reform Movement.

WRITING from Philadelphia to the Chicago Record-Herald, William E. Curtis says:

The passage of the ordinance giving the municipal gas works to Thomas Dolan and his associates by the councils of Philadelphia provoked an outburst of denunciation and indignation from one end of the city to the other. Town meetings were held at the Academy of Music and other places, and local meetings in every ward. Nor did the outraged citizens limit themselves to talking. The members of the council who had voted for the ordinance were visited by delegations and individuals and were the objects of other attentions which were not entirely agreeable. There was a good deal of bulldozing; there were threats of violence, and the boycott was freely used. But the gangsters showed a great deal of tenacity and courage. Very few of them lost their nerve and if Mr. Dolan had not withdrawn his proposition it would have been accepted over the mayor's veto.

Mayor Weaver, who up to this time had been a passive, if not active, member of "the gang," and who had permitted Israel W. Durham to usurp his authority in every branch of the government, broke with his political sponsors and partners and showed unexpected moral courage and determination. He not only vetoed the gas lease, but removed from office the director of public works the director of public safety and other prominent republican officials who had been appointed by him at Durham's dictation. He broke absolutely with the gang and joined the law and order party.

Weaver's Change of Heart.

His course has naturally provoked a great deal of comment, and various theories have been advanced to account for it. But the citizens of Philadelphia are willing to let bygones be bygones and rejoice that even one sinner has come to repentance. Mr. Weaver has never been regarded as a strong man, although he is considered personally honest. For four years he has allowed himself to be a tool of the machine, two years as district attorney and two years as mayor, and even if he had been deaf, dumb and blind he could not have escaped some knowledge of the iniquity that has been going on among his subordinates. However, his change of heart and attitude occurred at an opportune time, and whether (as some people claim) it was an illustration of the efficacy of prayer or a recognition of the principle that honesty is the best policy, he has shown courage and conscience, and the leaders of the present reform trust him.

Mr. Weaver is an Englishman by birth. His father was a mechanic at Worcester, England, where he was born 43 years ago. In 1879, when he was 17 years old, he emigrated to Philadelphia and got a job as messenger boy in John Wanamaker's big store. His wages were $7 a week, of which he regularly saved $1.50 and put it in a savings bank. As he was advanced to a clerkship he not only saved more but went to night school and studied bookkeeping, stenography and other commercial accomplishments. In 1885, by answering an advertisement in a newspaper, he got a position as stenographer in the law office of John Sparhoff, who encouraged him to study law. In 1890 he passed his examinations and was admitted to the bar, and Mr. Sparhoff took him into partnership. He went into politics, joined his ward club and soon became a district leader, proving a loyal, effective and energetic member of "the organization."

"Who the Hell Is John Weaver?"

In 1901, when the Republican ticket was being made up, Francis Shuck Brown, a Democrat, but the legal adviser of the Republican ring, suggested John Weaver as the most available candidate for district attorney.

"Who the hell is John Weaver?" inquired Mr. Durham.

"Weaver's all right," replied Brown. "He's a good lawyer. There's nothing they can bring against him. He has no record and belongs to the church and teaches in a Baptist Sunday school."

Mr. Weaver was nominated and elected. His service was so satisfactory to the gang that, two years later, they made him mayor. He has an amiable disposition; he was a loyal and obedient machine man; he was honest, and he taught a Sunday school class. He still teaches a Bible class. He still attends the Baptist church regularly, with his wife and boy, and although he awarded contracts to the ring, out of which they must have made millions of dollars, his home (worth perhaps $30,000) is mortgaged for $12,500, and he has no other property. His Sunday school teaching is not for political purposes. He has belonged to the same church ever since he came to Philadelphia, and taught a Bible class before he went into politics.

Mr. Weaver is a short, stout, pleasant-looking man, with a broad forehead, cheerful gray eyes, a flat nose, stubby moustache, large mouth and weak chin. He does not impress one as a man of strong character, or great energy, and would easily be recognized for what he is, a good fellow.

Thorough Canvass Being Made.

Public opinion sustained Mayor Weaver when he commenced to "buck the gang," as sinful politicians say here, and he became a popular hero in twelve hours. He sent for Elihu Root to advise him. Root came to Philadelphia, investigated the situation, told Weaver what he ought to do, and Weaver has done it. He has taken the city patronage away from the gang, has dismissed all of his original cabinet, and has filled their places with men in whom the public have confidence.

To support Weaver and overthrow the gang the taxpayers began to act together. What is known as the "City party," formed two years before as a protest against ring rule, was used as a nucleus. It had few politicians among its members, but cast 33,000 votes at the last municipal election, and very soon began to grow rapidly as an independent, non-partisan organization for municipal purposes only. There are 1,101 election precincts, or divisions (as they call them here), and it has active clubs in 923 of them. It has already thoroughly canvassed 41 out of 42 wards, and is now at work in the last one. This canvass has been the most thorough ever known in Philadelphia or perhaps in any other city. It has not been done by individuals, but by committees, composed of from five to fifteen citizens of both political parties, who have gone from house to house, and from shop to shop, and have had plain talks with their neighbors. This has been chiefly done by business and professional men. Several thousand lawyers, clergymen, doctors, merchants, manufacturers, bankers and other substantial citizens have signed pledges contributing two, four, six and in some cases ten days of their time to political work. They have been organized into committees, who have spent all the days making house-to-house visitations, discussing the political conditions in Philadelphia and the conduct of the municipal government, not only with the head of each household, but often with his wife and his sons and daughters.

Women Are Taking Part.

This work has been supplemented by organizations of women, who, for the first time in history, are taking an active part in Philadelphia politics, and have undertaken to educate the feminine population in order that their influence may be used for good government. They are working on the theory that it is not a political contest, but a defense of their homes, their property and their personal rights. They argue that the women and children of Philadelphia have more at stake in the contest than the men themselves, for the morality of the city mainly concerns the women and girls, and the prospect of an avalanche of debt to be paid in the future concerns the children who will be compelled to pay it. The members of the Mothers' Congress, Mrs. Howard Lippincott, president; the New Century club, Miss Emma Blackinston, president; the City Betterment association, Mrs. E. G. McCollin, president; the Civic club, Mrs. Thomas Kirkbright, president, and other organizations are now actively engaged in canvassing the homes and particularly the church people, under the general direction of Mrs. Rudolph Blankenburg, who has always been active in reform movements.

The City party held a convention on September 20, composed of 917 delegates, elected at the primaries in that number of precincts in 41 out of 42 wards. The primaries are said to have been more largely attended than ever before. The convention nominated a full ticket, including two judges—hold-overs—whose names are also on "The Organization" ticket, and to whom there is no objection from any source.

How Quay Punished Jermon.

As its candidate for sheriff the City party nominated Wilson H. Brown, a large manufacturer of textiles, who is now a member of the select council and was the leader against the gang in the fight over the gas case. For coroner they nominated J. J. R. Jermon, formerly a justice of the peace, who was turned out of office and expelled from the Republican organization six years ago because he held Senator Quay to the grand jury when the latter was accused of misusing public moneys for private purposes. It will be remembered that the senator escaped conviction under the statute of limitations, but he never forgave Jermon for failing to dismiss the charges at the preliminary examination, and saw that he was properly punished.

For county commissioners, which, in the present emergency, are the most important offices because they have direct charge of the machinery and conduct of the election, the City party has nominated Rudolph Blankenburg and Edward A. Anderson. The former is a man of millions, an old resident of German ancestry, a wholesale merchant and banker, a large owner of real estate, and has shares in the most important manufacturing industries. Mr. Blankenburg has been active in political affairs for half a century, and although his tendencies are toward the Republican party (because he believes in a gold standard of money and a protective tariff), he has always been counted with the independents and might properly be called a mugwump. He is one of the most public-spirited men in Philadelphia. He takes an active part in all movements for the betterment of the city and is always given a prominent place on occasions of ceremony. His colleague is Edward A. Anderson, an eminent member of the bar, who was formerly prominent in "The Organization," but was turned out of it because he would not obey the orders of the "hog combine." He is rich and eminently respectable.

Honest Men to the Rescue.

No such candidates for county commissioners were ever proposed for the voters of Philadelphia before. The office has generally been filled with men of inferior rank in "The Organization" because the duties are more arduous than ornamental. In Philadelphia the county commissioners select and have charge of the polling stations; they keep the voting lists, and they furnish copies to the judges of election. They select the election officers and give them their instructions; they print the ballots and prepare the ballot boxes, and they have supervision of all the paraphernalia and machinery of the elections. Mr. Blankenburg has declined more honorable offices but he and Mr. Anderson accepted nominations for county commissioners in this case because they recognized the supreme importance of securing control of the election machinery, which, for nearly half a century, has been in the hands of the machine and has been passed down from generation to generation of professional ballot-box stuffers.

"The Organization" nominated a machine ticket according to its usual custom before the revolution, but when its leaders recognized the length, the depth and breadth of the disturbance they withdrew all of their candidates and substituted objectionable men. The original candidates were notorious gangsters. The revised ticket is composed of respectable gentlemen, practically unknown, who have no record—good, bad or indifferent—and against whom nothing can be said except that they were selected by the same gang and will undoubtedly prove its submissive servants in case of their election.

Gang Knows Case Is Desperate.

The situation is so desperate that the Old Guard has been called out and the management of the campaign has been placed in the hands of David H. Lane and David Martin, who may be called bosses emeritus, for they retired from active participation in politics several years ago. Senator Penrose is acting with them and has taken general direction. They are supported by the Inquirer and the Item. All of the other newspapers are supporting the reform ticket. The railroad interests, the street car companies and other big corporations which have suffered blackmail from the gang for years are supposed to be on the fence. Their future interests must be protected and great caution is required. The only one of the large corporations that has come boldly out against the gang is the Baldwin Locomotive works. John H. Converse, the president, is a member of the executive committee of the City party.

The German-American voters are claimed by the ring on the "personal liberty" issue. But my investigations have failed to discover good grounds for this assumption. The liquor dealers, brewers, and the saloon interests generally (which are largely Germans) are undoubtedly with the gang for the same reason that the Prohibitionists are supporting the City ticket. But I have talked with three or four prominent Philadelphia citizens who declare that no one has any right to charge them or the members of their race in Philadelphia with supporting or sympathizing with the gangsters.

The Democrats will not put up a ticket. They attempted to entrap the leaders of the City party into a trade, offering their support, provided they would indorse the Democratic candidates for state offices. But the executive committee of the City party has rejected the proposition and declines to have anything to do with state or national politics.

UTAH AND THE MORMONS.

The belief exists among earnest people, actuated by conscience and careless of specific detail, that Utah is hopelessly a Mormon state. The Gentiles as loosely all persons not Mormons are termed—know better, and the Mormons are too wise to accept the theory of the excited outsider, however pleasing it might be to themselves. The Mormons do at present surpass in numbers, but they are laggard in achievement. It is not due to their efforts that the state has advanced. They may have quantity, but the quality that builds up a commonwealth is in the ranks of the opposition, and these ranks are constantly being augmented by drafts upon the middle west and the east.

The Salt Lake Tribune, which fought the Mormons so long ago that the avenging angels of the church were likely at any time to carry out the mandate of death, continues at the task, no longer one that involves personal danger. Its editor is the son of a man once at the head of the Mormon organization, and himself is offspring of a plural marriage. He has served as a United States senator. Now that he has abjured the family faith, he speaks with an intimate knowledge. According to the Tribune, probably one-half of all the wealth of Utah has been produced by Gentiles, although they represent one-third of the population. The Gentiles own almost three-fourths of Salt Lake City, yet they are not more than half of the total population. Of qualified voters there, however, 60 per cent are Gentiles.

There is no mistaking the Mormon purpose. It is to consign Utah to the grip of the leaders of the church. There is nothing reasonable in the supposition that the Gentiles, more enlightened, more resourceful, will permit the state their energy has erected and is making great to suffer this fate. What they have accomplished in a material way proves that without their presence and activity Utah would be sunk in ignorance still, inert under the thrall of superstition. They have brought in the capital, opened the mines, laid the rails, turned water into the barren stretches. Indeed, it is because they have been thus busily engaged that they have in some measure neglected their political duties. They were inclined not to provoke the hostility of the Mormons and to ignore the circumstance that these people were not free agents, but instruments of the elders.

The Mormon masses are by no means essentially bad. They have been brought in as immigrants, and not permitted, so far as the church rules can control, to learn anything inimical to and, giving of tithes and the tender of abject obedience. As the tide of Gentile intelligence and enterprise comes in, it must inevitably beat back the forces of ignorance, either driving them to distant fields or compassing assimilation into good citizenship. Utah's case is far from hopeless and the future for it is not dark. The state has a struggle to make, but the friends of education, morals and progress are confident of winning.—Philadelphia Ledger.

DANGERS OF GREAT WEALTH.

Whoever shall heedfully look on those who are eminent for their riches will not think their condition such as that he should hazard his quiet, and much less his virtue, to obtain it; for all that great wealth generally gives above a moderate fortune is more room for the freaks of caprice, and more privilege for ignorance and vigorous quicker succession of flatteries and a larger circle of voluptuousness.—Rambler.

WILL INVITE ROOSEVELT TO THE PIKE'S PEAK CENTENNIAL

Governor M'Donald Asked to Lend His Influence Towards Big Celebration---Committees Soon to Be Named to Take Charge of Subscriptions.

President Theodore Roosevelt will be invited to participate in the Pike's Peak centennial celebration, November, 1906, in this city.

It has been decided to ask the nation's chief executive to be present, and it is believed he will accept, for it is planned to make the event one of national scope.

Official recognition will doubtless also be given by Gov. Jesse F. McDonald. Dudley, secretary of the state Historical society, has brought the proposed celebration to the attention of Gov. McDonald. Mr. Dudley favors making it general in character, so that it may be participated in by the entire citizenship of the state, as well as the nation.

A meeting of members of the Pike Monument association and the directors of the Chamber of Commerce will be held in the near future to formulate definite plans for the celebration. The monument association is the organization which first started the movement for a centennial celebration in honor of the noted explorer ten years ago. At that time it was the intention to raise a fund and build a monument to memory of Pike. When this association members and directors of the Chamber of Commerce meet, committees will be appointed to take charge of the funds collected and to arrange the details of the celebration.

TELEPHONE COMPANY MAKES EXTENSIVE IMPROVEMENTS

Extensive improvements are being made by the Colorado Telephone company which will result in even better service than is now given.

Plans have been completed and work will be begun within a few days on a new brick station in Colorado City. A substantial brick building, 30x40 feet in dimensions, will be built on Third street between Lincoln and Colorado avenues. This will be used as a sub-station for the telephone system in West Colorado Springs or Colorado City. The station now is located in a rented building on Colorado City.

This building is but one of several improvements which the Colorado Telephone company intends making in the three cities. Approximately 800 telephones are in operation on the West Side and in Colorado City, and many more are to be installed, especially in the west part of this city. This was one reason why the sub-station will be moved several blocks east. The new building will be ready for occupancy before the first of the year.

More satisfactory service is to be established between Colorado Springs and towns in the southern part of the state. The company now has 11 circuits between Colorado Springs and Pueblo. Two gangs of workmen have commenced building a new pole line between this city and Pueblo, one gang working out of Colorado Springs, the other out of Pueblo. When this line is complete several new circuits will be established, making a total of 14 or 15. Linemen are also busy stringing a new line between Denver and Colorado Springs.

TEAMSTER HURT IN RUNAWAY ACCIDENT

Arnold Decker, a teamster, residing [illegible] was painfully but not seriously injured yesterday in an exciting runaway. He was driving a team of mules hitched to a heavy wagon, when they took fright and began to run wildly through the alley between Tejon street and Nevada avenue. As they neared Espanola street the wheels struck a rock and Arnold was thrown out. He struck on his head and was rendered unconscious. The rear wheels of the wagon as it rattled through the narrow alley attracted others, who were close at hand when Arnold was thrown out. They carried him to a nearby house, where he was [illegible]. He was later taken to his home.

How to Cure Corns and Bunions.

First, soak the corn or bunion in warm water to soften it, then pare it down as closely as possible without causing blood and apply Chamberlain's Pain Balm twice daily, rubbing vigorously for five minutes at each application. A corn plaster should be worn a few days to protect it from the shoe. As a general liniment for sprains, bruises, lameness and rheumatism, Pain Balm is unequaled. For sale by all druggists.

AFFAIRS OF BOYS' CLUB IN SPLENDID CONDITION.

The monthly meeting of the board of managers of the Colorado Springs Day Nursery was held yesterday morning at the nursery building on South Tejon street. Mrs. G. W. The receipt of a quantity of much needed winter clothing from the guild is gratefully acknowledged.

BUSINESS PROPERTY IS BOUGHT BY C. L. TUTT

C. L. Tutt has bought the building at 27 and 27½ North Tejon street, occupied by the real estate firms of Franklin & Co. and W. W. Williamson, from Thomas Tribe, for a consideration approximating $20,000. The property adjoins the Hagerman building, corner of North Tejon and East Kiowa streets, which was recently purchased by Mr. Tutt. It is 28½x190 feet. Mr. Tutt will probably build a new business block to replace the single story structure.

A Judicious Inquiry.

A well known traveling man who visits the drug trade, says he has often heard druggists inquire of customers who asked for a cough medicine, whether it was wanted for a child or for an adult, and if for a child they almost invariably recommend Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. The reason for this is that they know there is no danger from it and that it always cures. There is not the least danger in giving it, and for coughs, colds and croup it is unsurpassed. For sale by all druggists.

MANY INTERESTED IN NEW HOSPITAL GUILD

The local board of managers of the Deaconess hospital met yesterday afternoon in the hospital parlors. Arrangements [illegible] for the [illegible] of the Hospital Guild in the near future. Ladies from all the churches of the city are interested in the movement and it is expected that the organization will have several hundred members. A generous donation of fruit was received from the Home Missionary society of Boulder during the past month. The managers desire to acknowledge a donation of linen from the Colorado Springs Needlework guild.

Could Not Be Better.

The uniform success of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy has won for it a wide reputation and many people throughout the country will agree with Mr. Chas. W. Mattison, of Milford, Va., who says: "It works like magic, and is the best preparation I know of. It couldn't be any better." He had a serious attack of dysentery and was advised to try a bottle of this remedy, which he did, with the result that immediate relief was obtained. For sale by all druggists.

DIFFICULTIES OF TRAINMEN

WILL BE SETTLED AT THE ANNUAL MEETING OF THE C. & S. ON NOVEMBER 21.

No settlement of the controversy between employes of the Short Line, C. & S. and Midland railroads will be effected until about November 21 when the annual meeting of the Colorado & Southern will be held.

As was announced in The Gazette yesterday morning the arbitration committee of the four trainmen's orders called on officials of the C. & S. in Denver to confer about the alleged discriminations against employes of the roads. No action was taken further than to defer the matter until the C. & S. annual meeting.

It is said that while no threats of calling a strike on the Cripple Creek road have been made, the situation is viewed with no little concern by some of the railroad men. The outcome of the controversy will be awaited with interest, as indications are that it is possible every road entering the camp may be tied up. This may be the case if the railroad officials refuse to acquiesce to the findings of the arbitration committee.

HURT IN SMALL MIDLAND WRECK

R. H. Givin, fireman, Leadville, and W. W. Toolhaker, express messenger, Santa Fe hotel, Colorado Springs, were brought to St. Francis hospital at 11 o'clock last night suffering from minor injuries sustained in a slight Colorado Midland wreck which occurred at Thomasville, 25 miles west of Leadville, yesterday morning at 8:30 o'clock. Givin's right ankle was broken and gave him much pain. Toolhaker was bruised and considerably shaken.

WINTER TOURISTS ARE FLOCKING TO COAST

The winter season's first and probably the largest party of western tourists passed through Colorado Springs yesterday morning, bound for California from the New England states. The party comprised 400 people and occupied ten cars. The tourists arrived at 11:30 o'clock yesterday morning over the Rock Island and Burlington routes and left for the coast yesterday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock over the Colorado Midland.

WILL WORK FOR ENTIRE STATE

COMMERCIAL SECRETARIES TO MEET IN DENVER NEXT WEDNESDAY TO PLAN ACTIVE CAMPAIGN.

President Henry Russell Wray and Secretary John Y. Dunn of the Colorado Association of Commercial Secretaries have issued a call for a meeting to be held in Denver next Wednesday, to map out work for the various members of this organization which is striving for a greater Colorado.

The meeting is primarily for the purpose of completing the details of organization. The association has been organized only a short time and its members have held but one meeting. After minor matters are disposed of a plan of campaign for the advancement of state interests as well as for individual communities will be outlined.

To work in the interest of Colorado first, for the cities of Colorado second is the object of the state organization. A purpose of the association is to bring people to Colorado, to get them interested in its possibilities for pleasure and for profitable investments. The various commercial bodies which go to make up the state association will work together to this end, and each will help the other in the distribution of benefits derived from tourist or homeseeker patronage.

At the meeting in Denver arrangements will be made for the interchange of literature issued by the organizations which comprise the association, so that good ideas may benefit several communities and also to the end that exaggerated statements of the attractions of any Colorado communities may be eliminated.

CHARGED WITH STEALING BICYCLE A YEAR AGO

Henry Orr, a coal miner residing on West Huerfano near the viaduct, is in the county jail charged with stealing a bicycle from L. H. Skinner more than a year ago. Constable Harvey Gillingham, who made the arrest, has recovered the frame and one wheel and is now searching the premises of the Curtis mines for the saddle and the other wheel. Orr, whose hearing has been set by Justice O. R. Dunnington for Saturday morning at 10 o'clock, claims that the wheel was left at his place when he was conducting a boarding house at the Curtis mines. Constable Gillingham hopes to recover the missing portions of the machine today.

PEOPLE OF FINLAND JOIN IN MOVEMENT FOR FREEDOM

HELSINGFORS, Nov. 1.—All the official buildings fly the red flag and the Finnish national ensign. The police department is in the hands of the national guard, part of which has been armed by the Russian authorities. Thousands of reinforcements are reported to be marching from a camp 12 miles away. Up to the present all is quiet and order prevails, but a conflict is considered inevitable. The city is crowded with soldiers, and tumultuous meetings are being held for the further discussion of the situation.

The senate, believing that tranquility can not be maintained until the full legal order of things is established today resolved that the emperor should be requested to summon the diet to repeal the dictatorship, pending the establishment of freedom of the press and the removal of grievances connected with the military service. Finally the senate resolved that as it no longer possessed the confidence of the people new senators should be appointed. The resolutions were signed by all the senators and were dispatched to St. Petersburg, together with the resignations of the senators.

The movement for freedom is spreading. The strike continues; no newspapers are published and high prices of meat still prevail. Telegraphic communication is interrupted with all railroad stations.

It being reported during the course of the day that artillery was approaching the town, a deputation represented to the commander of the garrison that as the whole Russian people were fighting for freedom, the Finns were doing the same, and would regard the artillery as a hostile force. The commander replied that while order was maintained the troops would not interfere.

John Obolensky, the governor, has also promised that the troops will not interfere with peaceably disposed persons or with meetings.

ATLANTA, GA.

FOREIGN DIPLOMATS AFRAID OF THANKSGIVING SERVICES

ST. PETERSBURG, Nov. 1, Noon.—A light fall of snow covered the city with a white mantle during the night but this morning the weather is becoming colder and a drizzling rain helped to put a damper on the ardor of the crowds already exhausted by the demonstrations of yesterday.

General Trepoff's warning to the manifestants that he will use emergency measures to prevent disorders coupled with the manifestoes of priests of peace and fear soldiers also exercised a restraining influence, and the agitators experienced difficulty in arousing enough the proletariat. Many strikers among the railroad men are ready to return to work and those in favor of continuing the struggle have difficulty in holding the majority. The students and Social Democratic leaflets, who continue to declare that only a Democratic republic will suffice, are using every means in their power to keep up the enthusiasm and drive the people into armed collisions with the troops. A score of big meetings were announced for today.

An official thanksgiving service was announced to take place at the Kazan cathedral at 2 o'clock this afternoon.

The Grand Duke Michael Nicholaievitch was the only member of the imperial family present and a few court chamberlains and guard officers composed the remainder of the official attendance. Not a single foreign diplomat, all of whom are invited to such functions, was present and a few of the public attended the service. The many policemen in the cathedral were in evident dread of a bomb explosion.

Moscow, to which the eyes of the empire now turn naturally for guidance has upon the whole received the imperial manifesto splendidly. The Liberals generally, it appears will be contented if its provisions are executed in a prompt spirit. The people are divided. The rods, led by the students, have made the basis of their demands the instant release of the political prisoners, some of whom the governor has freed, the withdrawal of the troops from the city, the creation of a national guard and the preparing of a program for a democratic republic. All the people generally assembled themselves to rejoicing, though there were a number of clashes and fatalities.

The news from the provinces shows that the whole empire must have been plunged into great excitement yesterday. Everywhere the announcement of the issuing of the manifesto granting Russia a constitution aroused the people to a high pitch of enthusiasm, but everywhere the populace was divided into two camps as in St. Petersburg, those who accepted the boon of freedom with intense joy and who are now demonstrating by parades, and the extreme radicals, under the leadership of the students, social democrats and revolutionary organizations, who used the opportunity to preach the complete overthrow of the government. Clashes and sanguinary encounters occurred in many places. In some towns the mobs obtained control and the authorities were forced to obey their demands for the release of the political prisoners. This was the case at Bychostow. Cossacks were turned loose and beat the crowds at Kazan, Kishineff, Kieff and other places.

WARSAW, Russian Poland, Nov. 1.—Disorders continue throughout the city. Conflicts between the populace and soldiers are frequent. The authorities are charged with ignoring the imperial manifesto and general depression prevails everywhere. There is a complete deadlock in business. The streets and squares are full of troops. The people are attempting to organize street meetings, but they are promptly dispersed by bayonet charges. A meeting of the Vienna railroad employes at noon was broken up by the police.

Crowds are flocking to the cemeteries on the occasion of All Souls' Day. The workmen have organized an anti-government demonstration at the Powonzki cemetery.

KIEFF, Russia, Nov. 1.—The populace have seized the town hall yesterday and revolutionary speeches were being delivered to the crowd from the balcony when the Cossacks appeared. Some of the people inside were armed and an engagement followed, resulting in many being killed or wounded on both sides. The Cossacks finally routed the crowd and captured the building. After dark the Jewish quarter was sacked. The bodies of the persons killed and the wounded people were removed from the town hall.

The Cossacks, while passing the office of the Orloki, a liberal paper, fired three volleys at the building.

MENSK, Russia, Nov. 1.—Crowds in an attempt to storm the prison here yesterday were broken off by Cossacks who fired several volleys at the mob. Many persons were killed or wounded and many more were beaten with whips. The doctors' residences were transformed into hospitals.

SUPREME COURT DENIES MOTION

REFUSES WRIT OF PROHIBITION AGAINST JUDGE JOHNSON TO PREVENT HIS TRYING SALOON KEEPERS.

DENVER, Nov. 1.—After hearing arguments the supreme court today denied a motion for leave to file an application for a writ of prohibition forbidding Judge Johnson to proceed with the trial of saloon keepers and gamblers arrested under his order and against whom District Attorney Sedgwick filed informations before Judge Palmer in the criminal division of the district court. Judge Johnson was not represented by counsel.

Jacob Fillius, president of the Park board, whose appearance in any criminal case is unusual, declared that Judge Johnson has lost the power of right reasoning, and said he should be attended by the highest court in the state.

Attorney Fred Muller said that Judge Johnson by his course had brought about an actual condition of chaos and confusion, and that made the courts a laughing stock with the people and the press.

Attorney Garwood said there was an unseemly wrangle in the district court, and that Judge Johnson was responsible for it.

Chief Justice Gabbert held that under the rules adopted by the supreme court it could not take original jurisdiction but advised the attorneys to wait until after Friday when the men arrested are to be brought before Judge Johnson. They are to appear before Judge Palmer tomorrow.

Judge Johnson today announced his intention to issue an order to Sheriff Nesbitt tomorrow calling upon him to arrest all keepers of restaurants where intoxicating liquors are sold, found open on Sunday or between midnight and 6 o'clock in the morning.

INTERNAL TROUBLES OF MINING COMPANY

PHOENIX, Ariz., Nov. 1.—W. H. Godair, of Chicago, and Edward J. Hill, of Aurora, Ills., owning 94 shares of the Great Western Gold company, today filed suit here alleging insolvency of the company and asking the appointment of a receiver and the return to the treasurer of the company of approximately $300,000 by President T. S. Henderson, of St. Louis.

The complaint charges that Henderson in April, this year, illegally increased the capitalization to $12,000,000 to cover an overissue of the capital stock all of which had been previously issued by him including $3,000,000 of promoters' stock, by agreement in escrow.

FIRST CONSIGNMENT OF MISS ROOSEVELT'S GIFTS.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 1.—The first consignment of Miss Alice Roosevelt's presents and souvenirs from the orient were received in the Georgetown customs house today. It consisted of two dozen trunks, boxes and packages.

VICTOR GUSTAFSON DISPLAYS HEROISM

VICTOR, Nov. 1.—In an attempt to save a life Victor Gustafson nearly lost his own in a fire on Bull hill about 8:30 o'clock tonight.

With other miners he came out of the Cliff mine to find flames that were consuming the residence of Albert Lynn, nearby.

He was informed that Mrs. Lynn was in the building and Gustafson entered the building to find them. He dashed a bucket of water over his head, plunged in flame and got safely through the room, but was soon to fall in the second by companions outside the house. They knocked in a window and dragged him out unconscious. He is recovering.

The children and parents went to Victor about 6:30 o'clock. It is believed the fire was of incendiary origin. The loss was about $400.

CHOATE ESPOUSES CAUSE OF JEROME

for the great office that the people are to fill. And the members of the party at large have no more to do with making of nominations for these municipal offices than the children you find playing in the streets. Now, what did these parties' conventions in their respective wigwams confirm? They were determined whoever else might be district attorney, Jerome should never be again.

"I heard something about it from one of the small great leaders of our own party, the Republican party. They called me up on the long-distance telephone at Stockbridge and wanted me to come down and take a hand in the Republican campaign.

New Brand of Fusion.

"'Why,' I said, 'I can't do that. I am all for Jerome and you have left Jerome off the ticket. Why did you leave him off?'

"Well, there was a confused jumble of sound through the telephone, but I could hear there four words: 'He absolutely prevented fusion.' Well, so he did. He did absolutely prevent the only fusion they ever wanted. He prevented the fusion of Murphy to carry on the campaign for the sake and benefit of Murphy and Odell. But somehow or other he has created a fusion that will overwhelm all these little politicians of both parties."

Mr. Choate referred to the legend of St. Jerome quelling the beasts of the forests and drawing a thorn from the lion's foot, and said: "That sounds to me exactly like our Jerome and our Republican alliance. Our Republican lion whom we admire so much had a thorn in his foot that prevented his standing upright or walking upon the firm ground and that thorn was a little boss that undertook to direct his movements. Well now, what has Jerome done for him? Jerome backed up by the men and women of this city who believe in him has eliminated the boss; he has extracted the thorn from the foot of the Republican lion and he immediately stood on his legs and when he was restored he was the king of beasts again and I don't know but he already thought he was elected mayor and not only the Republican lion, but all the whelps have come and licked Jerome's hand, saying: 'Wherever you lead we will follow.'"

New York on Trial.

"He has revived the Republican party. He has made the party against its will kneel down before him and beg redemption to put his name on that ballot. Why, if he wins next Tuesday, as he will, victories of the people in defense of their rights will be a great deal more easy and certain ever afterward. The city of New York is on trial before the world.

"It has been the unfavorable criticism of all lands I have heard a hundreds of times on the other side that the people of the great municipalities of America could not manage their own affairs and in them at least free government, popular and self-government was a failure.

"We should make next Tuesday a great effort to contradict that and you will if you will give your votes for the triumphant election of Mr. Jerome."

TIGERS LOOK THE WINNERS

COLORADO COLLEGE PICKED TO WIN BY TWO TOUCHDOWNS.--

ROOTING CLUB 250 STRONG WILL PARADE BEFORE GAME AND CHEER LOCALS TO VICTORY.

"If Colorado college plays its game Saturday it will win by an 18 to 0 score."

This statement, made last night by Coach Richards of the Tigers, voices the sentiment of every student of the Harvard of the west. Some are inclined to go above this figure but calm calculators who know football do not look for a larger score. The man who writes the sporting dope for the Gazette says that the Tigers are two touchdowns better than the Aggies, but that is going all. The Aggies may score on a fluke, their luck is running that way this season.

Saturday's game will be a big event in football circles for several reasons. It is the first championship game of the Rocky Mountain Intercollegiate league to be played in Colorado Springs. It is the first championship game of the Tigers. If the Aggies lose they will be altogether out of the running for the 1905 pennant. If they win they will still have a faint chance of landing the hunting. If the Tigers win by a good score they will have a fully show for the championship. The School of Mines eleven now looks a little the strongest on paper but the Tigers are improving rapidly and should be at the bat when the going sounds.

The college rooting club is practicing new yells and songs daily and will be heard from for several hours Saturday afternoon on Washburn field. One hundred men and 150 women will parade before the game and occupy a reserved section of the grand stand. The Aggies will also be accompanied to this city by a strong rooting band and anyone who is afraid of noise should leave town Saturday morning and not return until Sunday.

HART RETIRES FROM BASEBALL BUSINESS.

CHICAGO, Nov. 1.—By the formal transfer of the ownership of the Chicago National league baseball club, J. A. Hart retires from active participation in baseball and is succeeded by Charles F. Murphy.

NEW SWIMMING RECORD.

BRIGHTON, Nov. 1.—Oscar St. Cyr made a new world's record for swimming 40 yards tonight in the tank of the Chicago Athletic association, covering the distance in 21 seconds. The record was made in competition.

Favored by Both Parties.

Republicans and Democrats alike praise Foley's Honey and Tar for coughs, colds and all throat and lung diseases, as no other remedy can compare with it. It is safe and sure. J. T. Slater, merchant, Fitchburg, Mass., writes: "Foley's Honey and Tar cured me of a very bad cough which I had for three months though other remedies failed to benefit me. I can highly recommend it for coughs and colds. For sale by Hefley-Arcularius Drug Co.

JAPANESE DIPLOMATS.

TOKIO, Nov. 1.—It is likely that the candidates for the posts of Japanese ambassadors at the European courts and at Washington will be announced before long. Among the candidates for the positions are Viscount Aoki, privy councillor of the realm, Viscount Hayashi, Japanese minister to Great Britain, M. C. Chiida, vice minister of foreign affairs, M. Kurino, former minister to Russia, Baron Suematsu and Baron Kaneko, the Japanese financial advisor.

THE VALUE OF CHARCOAL.

Few People Know How Useful it is in Preserving Health and Beauty.

Nearly everybody knows that charcoal is the safest and most efficient disinfectant and purifier in nature, but few realize its value when taken into the human system for the same cleansing purpose.

Charcoal is a remedy that the more you take of it the better; it is not a drug at all, but simply absorbs the gases and impurities always present in the stomach and intestines and carries them out of the system.

Charcoal sweetens the breath after smoking, drinking or after eating onions and other odorous vegetables.

Charcoal effectually clears and improves the complexion; it whitens the teeth and further acts as a natural and eminently safe cathartic.

It absorbs the injurious gases which collect in the stomach and bowels; it disinfects the mouth and throat from the poison of catarrh.

All druggists sell charcoal in one form or another, but probably the best charcoal and the best for the money is in Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges; they are composed of the finest powdered Willow charcoal, and other harmless antiseptics in tablet form or rather in the form of large, pleasant tasting lozenges, the charcoal being mixed with honey.

The daily use of these lozenges will soon tell in a much improved condition of the general health, better complexion, sweeter breath and purer blood, and the beauty of it is, that no possible harm can result from their continued use, but on the contrary, great benefit.

A Buffalo physician in speaking of the benefits of charcoal says: "I advise Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges to all patients suffering from gas in stomach and bowels, and to clear the complexion and purify the breath, mouth and throat. I also believe the liver is greatly benefited by the daily use of them; they cost but twenty-five cents a box at drug stores, and although in some sense a patent preparation, yet I believe I get more and better charcoal in Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges than in any of the ordinary charcoal tablets."

Would you know a safe physic?

Most pills and laxatives are not. Something more than a purgative is necessary in a good physic. There are hundreds of preparations which will make the bowels act, but very few of them all do so without great damage to the digestive organs. Candied preparations, compound pills, certain salts, and other well known remedies readily and surely force the bowels to action but at a great cost of strength to the intestinal muscles. Such preparations act unnaturally. They weaken the entire system, and the patient is left in a worse condition than if nothing had been taken.

Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin

is not like other laxatives. It never weakens, but always strengthens. It is pleasant to take, acts gently upon the bowels, never gripes, and once the bowels are given the strength which it imparts, they are quickly restored to a permanently normal condition, fully able to voluntarily perform their functions.

Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is unequaled in the treatment of dyspepsia, indigestion, constipation and all stomach disorders. It is sold by all druggists at 50 cents and $1.00 a bottle.

Your money back if it doesn't satisfy.

HOW MANY BONES.

How many bones in the human face?
Fourteen, when they are all in place.
How many bones in the cranium?
Eight, unless you've undone some.
How many bones in the ear are found?
Three in each, to catch the sound.
How many bones are in the spine?
Twenty-four, like a clustering vine.
How many bones in the chest are found?
Twenty-four ribs, to the sternum bound.
How many bones in the shoulder blade?
Two in each—one before, one behind.
How many bones are in the arm?
The top has one; and two the forearm.
How many bones are in the wrist?
Eight, if none of them is missed.
How many bones in the palm of the hand?
Five in the palm, you understand.
How many bones in the fingers ten?
Twelve bones, plus two and repeat again.
How many bones are in the hip?
One in each where the femurs slip.
With sacrum and coccyx, too, to back it
And keep the pelvis all in place.
How many bones are in the thigh?
One in each, and deep they lie.
How many bones are in the knee?
One, the patella, plain to see.
How many bones are in the shin?
Two in each, and well bound in.
How many bones in the ankle strong?
Seven in each, but none is long.
How many bones in the ball of the foot?
Five in each, as the palms were put.
How many bones in the toes, all told?
Just twenty-eight, like the fingers bold.
There's a bone at the root of the longest toe to add,
And sesamoids eight to what you had.
Now, adding them all, 'tis plainly seen
That the total number is 214.
And in the mouth we clearly view
Teeth, upper and lower, thirty-two.

LEEDS UNABLE TO BREAK UP PRACTICE OF GIVING REBATES

WASHINGTON, Nov. 1.—An inquiry into the operation of private refrigerator cars on trans-continental railways was begun today by the interstate commerce commission. The cases, in which the hearings are being held are directed by the commission against the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe and the Southern Pacific railways and the Armour car lines, Santa Fe Refrigerator Despatch and the American Refrigerator Transit company. These cases were segregated from the numerous cases against southwestern railways on which hearings were held recently.

The principal witness today was J. S. Leeds, general manager of the Santa Fe Refrigerator Despatch, who gave startling testimony concerning rebates and declared his inability to break up the practice.

In response to questions by Commissioners Clements and Prouty, Mr. Leeds admitted that he has paid rebates to shippers of deciduous fruits but insisted that there had been no discrimination in favor of any one or more shippers. He justified the payment of rebates by saying that he found this to be a practice indulged in by his competitors. The rebates, he said, amounted to $100 a car to Chicago, $75 to Buffalo and Pittsburg and $20 to the Atlantic coast.

A protest was made by attorneys for the Armour car lines and the Southern Pacific railway against "the loose manner of examining the witness." Commissioner Clements had called attention to the testimony given by Mr. Leeds in hearings at Chicago a year ago and asked Mr. Leeds to tell the commission again of those "practices." The attorneys said that if Mr. Leeds had evidence of concrete cases, ...rebates had been given it would be all right for him to tell of those cases. Mr. Leeds then told of what his company had done and said that individually he was powerless to break up the practice.

"Why can't you break it up?" asked Commissioner Prouty.

"Because it would precipitate a war that might bring the charges below cost of the refrigeration," said Mr. Leeds.

FRANCE IS NOT SATISFIED WITH EVENTS IN CARACAS

WASHINGTON, Nov. 1.—Ambassador Jusserand had a talk last night with the president about the Venezuelan matters. It is believed that the French government is not entirely satisfied with the progress of events in Caracas, and especially at the lack of success up to this time of Mr. Russell, the American minister, in his efforts to induce President Castro to withdraw his last note practically dismissing M. Taigny, the French charge at Caracas. It is impossible to obtain any official statement from the parties to yesterday evening's conference, but it is learned that the situation is such that the French government does not feel justified in countermanding the orders already issued for a French fleet to assemble at Martinique ready for eventualities in case the French demand is not met in a proper spirit.

Secretary Root has been acting in the role of mediator in a manner that has won the sympathy of Castro and the approval of the French government. He has induced France to tone down the terms of the demands which it made upon the Venezuelan president.

When the difficulty is adjusted it is probable that M. Taigny will be granted a leave of absence, but the French authorities will not approve of an application for leave if there exists in Venezuela a disposition to interpret his departure as a sign of weakness.

PRINCE LOUIS IS HERE TO DELIVER KING'S MESSAGE

ANNAPOLIS, Md., Nov. 1.—Prince Louis of Battenberg, the bearer of a special message from the monarch of the British empire to the president of the United States, has set foot on American soil and been received with honors due his rank and mission by Admiral Sands, superintendent of the naval academy, and Governor Warfield of Maryland.

The joint fleet of American and British war vessels is lying in Annapolis Roads, forming by far the most ...ificent naval spectacle ever seen in those waters.

The British squadron is anchored inside the double line of American warships, so that Annapolis, looking out to sea tonight will witness the unprecedented spectacle of three lines of warships stretched across Chesapeake bay at right angles to the entrance.

The nearest column, comprises the four swift armored cruisers commanded by Prince Louis, the Drake, the flagship of his highness, at the head of the column.

Four hundred yards further will gleam the lights of the eight mighty battleships that make up the strong right arm of the American navy, the Maine, flagship of the commander-in-chief; Missouri, Kearsarge and Kentucky; Alabama, flagship of Rear Admiral Davis, commanding the second division, Illinois, Iowa and Massachusetts.

Four hundred yards further the four armored cruisers of the fourth division are at anchor stretched out in single column parallel with the other divisions, the West Virginia, flagship of Rear Admiral Brownson, in the lead, the Colorado, Pennsylvania and Maryland.

The program for the day included the official call of Prince Louis, on the commander-in-chief, the superintendent of the naval academy and the governor of Maryland and the return calls.

The British vessels dropped anchor off Annapolis at 10:20 this morning. The national and other salutes required by the occasion were exchanged and after other formalities Prince Louis, just before noon, came ashore. He was accompanied by Captain Ryon, naval attache of the British embassy at Washington, who has joined the fleet here; Lieutenant Gerald Sclelby, flag officer of the Drake, and Lieutenant Walter R. Crossby, U. S. N., flag officer of the Maine. Standing on the wharf to receive them were Admiral Sands and his aide, Lieutenant Commander Thomas P. Magruder, and immediately fronting the landing place was a company of marines, commanded by Captain Reisinger. These presented arms as Prince Louis landed, and there was a flourish of field music.

After an exchange of formal salutes, Admiral Sands and Prince Louis grasped each other's hands warmly, and the prince was conducted to the carriage and was driven around the parade grounds to Admiral Sands' residence.

The visiting party stayed at the superintendent's residence for a quarter of an hour, and then drove to the government house, where they were received by Governor Edwin Warfield.

HALLOWEEN PRANK MAY END FATALLY

CHICAGO, Nov. 1.—Halloween proved serious in the residence of Wm. Hood last night. Cleveland Hood, a 13-year-old son, was shot during a game of "hold-up" by Frank Wright, a boy of the same age. Young Hood was shot just above the heart. He was taken to the hospital, where an operation was performed, and it was reported that the outcome of the wound was in doubt.

The shooting was accidental. The revolver belonged to Mr. Hood, and the boys did not look to see if it was ...ded.

Harry Cannon and Herold Tully, two other boys were dressed as girls, and a mask scene was acted out, where the robber steps from a dark alley and cries: "Hands up or you are dead men!"

Wright was playing the part of a robber. Hood and the masquerading girls were the victims. All went well, and Hood showed the proper spectacle of fright when he found himself looking into the ...rrel of a revolver.

As he was ...utting out ...s fearful tirade ...ght has ...a reality, for the ...pty revolver was discharged, ...Hood boy ...ck to the floor.

When the fire was at its height there was a loud explosion of powder and ammunition which blew out nearly the whole front of the block. In the property burned were the largest stores in the city, together with the Osceola club quarters. Loss, $250,000.

MEDICAL INSPECTION TO BE MORE RIGID

NEW YORK, Nov. 1.—There is a surprise in store for the cabin passengers of the steamer Kaiser Wilhelm II when that ship comes into quarantine today from Bremen, Southampton and Cherbourg, for today there goes into an effect an order by Robert Watchorn, commissioner of immigration, that there shall be no casual medical inspection of the saloon voyagers, but as careful an inspection as is accorded to the aliens in the steerage.

Heretofore the medical inspection of saloon passengers has been of a casual and perfunctory nature, while persons in the second cabins were quite carefully looked over and those of the steerage were subjected to a rigid inspection.

It is because of the easy landing of Henry Hayen, from the saloon of the ...an liner New York last Saturday that Commissioner Watchorn has promulgated this order. Hayen, although a first cabin passenger, sought his wife and a child at Ellis Island after the landing of the steerage passengers. Hayen was identified as a man deported four year ago for an incurable affection of the eyes. At that time he was in the steerage but when he tried again he put his family in the steerage and travelled himself first class in this way he had no trouble in landing.

Among the passengers on the Kaiser Wilhelm II is the ambassador from Germany, Baron Speck von Sternberg, who by virtue of his position is exempt from customs examination. Whether he is to be held up while his general health is inquired into was not decided late yesterday. Caruso, Knote, Reiss and Dippel, singers of the operatic world, Mr. and Mrs. W. K. Vanderbilt, and Hamilton Fish, assistant treasurer of the United States, are also on board.

...BERRY IS ...SISTANT ...RETARY ...AVY

WASHINGTON, Nov. 1.—T. H. Newberry of Detroit, Mich., today took the oath of office as assistant secretary of the navy and at once assumed the duties of his office. After taking the oath all the navy and marine officers on duty in the department were presented to Mr. Newberry and at the same time they took leave of Mr. Darling. The clerical force was next presented. On Mr. Newberry's desk was a handsome floral piece, presented by Detroit lodge of Elks, of which Mr. Newberry is a member.

HEARST BANNER IS TORN DOWN

LAWLESSNESS BROUGHT INTO NEW YORK POLITICAL CAMPAIGN—SOME EXCITING SCENES.

NEW YORK, Nov. 1.—Two campaign incidents which resulted in the tearing down of two anti-Hearst banners and caused excitement among thousands of people occurred in two different sections of the city today during the noon hour.

The banners were similar to the one ordered down by Mayor McClellan last night—a red flag supported by a hand labelled "Hearst," an American flag with the supporting hand marked "McClellan," and underneath the query: "Under the flag?" The first of today's demonstrations occurred in Union Square where a large crowd tore down the red flag.

The second incident of similar origin was more exciting, several thousand people witnessing it at Fourth street and Broadway. One young man who declared that he was not a Hearst sympathizer, made a speech expressing indignation that the American flag had been placed on a level with the flag of anarchy.

Another young man pushed his way through the crowd, toward the poles supporting the banner, shouting, "I'll do it. I'll cut it down. We will get rid of that flag of anarchy."

There was a cheer from the crowd which was heard for blocks and a lane was made for the young man, who made his way to one of the poles and climbed it. He cut the cord that held the flags, and both fell to the street. On the side of the street on which the American flag fell, many in the crowd uncovered and the national emblem was picked up and carefully folded. The red flag, however, was trampled in the mud and finally was torn to pieces. The American flag was carefully preserved and guarded until the police arrived and took possession of it. The police made no arrests.

Mayor McClellan today expressed disapproval of the use of the red flag on some of the Tammany banners and also directed that the speakers supporting him must not be guilty of personal abuse of any of the opposing candidates.

Charles F. Murphy, leader of Tammany Hall, said today that Tammany had nothing to do with the erection of the political displays on which the American flag and the red flag were placed side by side.

"We have nothing to do with them," said Mr. Murphy.

"Those flags were put up by business men."

DEATH OF MRS. TODD BEING INVESTIGATED

NEW YORK, Nov. 1.—Acting upon a suspicion that Mrs. Margareta Todd, a wealthy widow, aged 76 years, was the victim of foul play, Coroner Scholer of this city and Coroner Dugal of Philadelphia today began an investigation of the mysterious facts atending her death and the puzzling moves that preceded and followed it. The value of Mrs. Todd's estate is estimated at more than $150,000 and possibly $1,000,000. She wore, when found dead on the Reading railway tracks in Philadelphia last Friday, several thousand dollars worth of jewels. It was learned, however, that Mrs. Todd usually wore a belt in which she carried a large sum of money. So far no trace has been found of this belt.

FLOWERS NAMED IN HONOR OF MRS. AND MISS ROOSEVELT.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 1.—The annual chrysanthemum and carnation show of the department of agriculture is now under way and thousands of people are visiting it daily. As soon as the public have a chance to view the new intense yellow incurved chrysanthemum, "Mrs. Roosevelt," it will be sent by Secretary Wilson to the White House as a present to Mrs. Roosevelt. The new silvery pink chrysanthemum, "Miss Alice Roosevelt," will in all probability be forwarded in a few days to the White House, as a gift to the president's daughter.

JOKE WAS ON THE ARTIST.

A well-known artist, who has just returned to town from a summer sojourn in a quiet Vermont village, is telling a good story on himself.

One afternoon, while he was busily engaged in sketching a landscape, one of the natives approached him, and, after watching the work for some minutes, inquired: "Heow much will ye paint a picter of my barn, with me standin' in the door, for?"

"Oh, $25," replied the artist, thinking the price would discourage the farmer's desire.

"Done," said the farmer. "Come around termorrer."

In due course the picture was finished, but the artist quite forgot to paint in the farmer standing in the barn door.

"Yes," said the rustic, "I like it, but where be I?"

The artist immediately realized his mistake, but tried to pass it off with a joke.

"Oh," he said, "you've gone into the house to get me my $25."

"Oh, have I? P'raps I'll be comin' out soon, and if I do I'll let you know. In the meantime we'll hang it up and wait."

The artist assures his friends that the farmer has not emerged yet, to the best of his knowledge.—New York Globe.

WHAT JOY THEY BRING TO EVERY HOME

as with joyous hearts and smiling faces they romp and play, when in health and how conducive to health the games in which they indulge, the outdoor life they enjoy, the cleanly, regular habits they should be taught to form and the wholesome diet of which they should partake. How tenderly their health should be preserved, not by constant medication, but by careful avoidance of every medicine of an injurious or objectionable nature and if at any time a remedial agent is required, to assist nature, only those of known excellence should be used; remedies which are pure and wholesome and truly beneficial in effect, like the pleasant laxative remedy, Syrup of Figs, manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. Syrup of Figs has come into general favor in many millions of well informed families, whose estimate of its quality and excellence is based upon personal knowledge and use.

Syrup of Figs has also met with the approval of physicians generally, because they know it is wholesome, simple and gentle in its action. We inform all reputable physicians as to the medicinal principles of Syrup of Figs, obtained, by an original method, from certain plants known to them to act most beneficially and presented in an agreeable syrup in which the wholesome Californian blue figs are used to promote the pleasant taste; therefore it is not a secret remedy and hence we are free to refer to all well informed physicians, who do not approve of patent medicines and never favor indiscriminate self-medication.

Please to remember and teach your children also that the genuine Syrup of Figs always has the full name of the Company California Fig Syrup Co. plainly printed on the front of every package and that it is for sale in bottles of one size only. If any dealer offers any other than the regular Fifty cent size, or having printed thereon the name of any other company, do not accept it. If you fail to get the genuine you will not get its beneficial effects. Every family should always have a bottle on hand, as it is equally beneficial for the parents and the children, whenever a laxative remedy is required.

RECORD FIGURES

Reached by the American Smelting and Reading. Some New Points of Strength.

NEW YORK, Nov. 1.—The gayety made from the heavy slaughter shown of the market yesterday by the news from Russia having been settled during the day was not lonjer in evidence in today's market by the stubborn influence. Besides that the tone of the news from Russia over night was of a kind to give appreciation that the pacification of the country was still open to question. This factor was shifted from a theoretical rather than a practical standpoint as the foreign stock markets were closed in observance of all Saints day and the usual barometer of foreign political conditions was thus lacking.

American Smelting and Reading each touched record figures although the last named stock was clearly undergoing a process of profit taking so that its extreme rise was limited. The United States Steel stocks were clearly affected by posting on the figures of earnings for the September quarter.

The high level of net earnings attained the record figures of unfilled orders on hand, while comment highly favorable, had both expected the ring of the rumors set afloat before hand for speculative purposes. Buying induced by the extravagant rumors naturally resulted in disappointment when the figures were published and some selling ensued. The speculation in American Smelting was actively pursued and had its influence on the movement in National Lead owing to rumors of a leadmerger under American Smelting auspices. The most conspicuous new point of strength was in the Missouri Kansas and Texas stocks, which have been much neglected since the unsatisfactory of the president deprecated hopes of dividend payment on the preferred stock. Sterling exchange continued its decline and no further talk was heard of gold exports for the present.

The turn of month abroad brings general relaxation in the money market and easier conditions are expected until the end of the month.

The appearance of advance sheets of the Iron Age weekly Review caused a late spurt in some of the iron and steel industrials and the market closed irregular.

Bonds were irregular. Total sales par value $3,185,000.

United States bonds were all unchanged on call.

SELLING WHEAT

Bear Movement by Pit Traders Result in a Variable Avalanche of Liquidation.

CHICAGO, Nov. 1.—The slump in the wheat market manifested soon after the opening yesterday was followed by a [illegible] of an advance in the price of wheat at Liverpool, the market here showed [illegible] early [illegible] at 81¾@82c, December was 1c higher at 80¾@81c. An English statistician added that the Russian situation was still extremely serious and other private cablegrams told practically the same story. Nevertheless many pit traders were bearishly inclined and before the end of the first half hour they had started a selling movement which eventually developed [illegible] and before the close of the first half hour they had started a selling movement which eventually developed [illegible] carried prices off nearly 2c from the highest point of the day.

Outside of a few weeks in the northwest the only important bearish factor was the liberal increase in primary receipts, total arrivals today being 1,493,000 bushel compared with 881,000 bushel a year ago. At times throughout the session a leading bull gave the market [illegible] support but the effect was largely discounted by a settled impression that this same trader was simultaneously selling freely through brokers. The latest volume of wheat that today flooded the pit seemed to suggest profit taking by some influential holder.

For May the lowest point of the day was reached at 80¾c. December dropped to 80¼c. Part of the loss was regained on covering by shorts. The market however closed weak with May at 80¾c, December closed at 80¾@¾c.

The break in wheat had a weakening effect on other grain markets. At the start the corn market was quite firm but little sentiment became bearish and selling was quite general. The market closed weak with prices at the lowest point of the day. December opened unchanged to ¼c higher at 46¾@46¾c, sold between 46¾@46¾c and closed at 45¾c. May ranged between 46¾ and 48¾c. May ranged between 32¾@32¾ and 32¾ and closed at 32¾c.

Provisions were firm on support from leading packers. At the close January pork was up 7½@10c at $12.47½. Lard was unchanged at $6.82½. Ribs were up a shade at $6.50@6.52½.

SOUTH AFRICANS MAY BUY MINES

CRIPPLE CREEK, Nov. 1.—There is prospect of investment here by a South African crowd of large means. W. M. Pierce, of Johannesburg, mining engineer, has been here for several days making preliminary examination of conditions. He has been with the Taylor syndicate and with the Deep-Deep Mining company in the southern fields. While a limiting what his clients might invest here Pierce said he was not prepared to say [illegible] what part but volunteered that he had been attracted by conditions on the north slope of Ironclad hill.

OFFICERS ELECTED BY THE JOSEPHINE G. M. CO.

Jerry Culbertson, lawyer politician and mining promoter of Harrisonville, Mo., was elected president of the Josephine Gold Mining company. This mine was named in honor of Mr. Culbertson's wife, Mrs. Josephine Parsons Culbertson, who attended Colorado college in 1885, and who is the granddaughter of Robert Steel, the first governor of Colorado. She was married to Mr. Culbertson the year he was elected prosecuting attorney of Cass county, Mo.

The officers of the company were elected as follows: President, Jerry Culbertson; Vice president, H. B. P. Anderson; secretary and treasurer, J. A. Elston; assistant secretary, S. R. Kassel. W. D. Skemwell, of this city, and W. E. Hall, of Carthage, Mo., have been added to the board of directors. Mr. Skemwell, who is to be mining superintendent, has for some time been a private detective, with headquarters at the Antlers hotel. CHRISTMAS SHAFT TO BE SUNK 200 FEET DEEPER.

Special to The Gazette.

CRIPPLE CREEK, Nov. 1.—An addition of 200 feet is to be made to the Christmas shaft of Bull hill by lessees. This will provide a depth of 1,000 feet. At that depth shoots that are responsive to existing levels and on neighboring properties will be sought. It is believed by those familiar with conditions in the locality that the Christmas can be made a rank with some of the most important shippers of the second class.

Come!---be the guest of
this winter. Leave the chilly north behind you, and find health and pleasure under the stainless splendor of her turquoise sky.
To all newcomers, San Antonio offers a thousand delightful surprises. For the sight-seer, the old Mission Churches are still here, the Cathedral of San Fernando, and gray and ghostly in the dazzling sunlight, the historic Alamo. For the invalid a perfect combination of sunny winter weather, pure, dry air, beautiful scenery and modern accommodations.
The Climate's the thing in San Antonio.
The invigorating air, dry and warm; the altitude; the perfect natural drainage, all combine to make the temperature as nearly perfect as can be. It is possible to spend most of each day, from November to March, outdoors. The parks and plazas, the margins of the creeks and rivers, the groves of palm and magnolia, lose nothing of their lustrous green during the winter months.
San Antonio is, of all America, the oddest blending of modern utility and beauty, with the romance and heroism of the medieval.
Come to San Antonio! The exceptionally low rates during the Fall and Winter months—the excellent trains service and accommodations given the M. K. & T. Ry. make a journey of but small cost and of supreme comfort.
I want you to read "The Story of San Antonio." I'll send it on request. Once read, I'm sure you'll be more than half convinced that you should be the guest of San Antonio this Winter. Address
